

Real Grace! Real Life! Real Community!

The vision outlined in the fold in part of your brochure is Real Grace Real Life Real Community.

- How does a focus on real grace, real life, and real community speak to a world that is longing for meaning and belonging?
- How do these words describe life in your church, school or ministry organisation?
- What does it mean to experience REAL grace as opposed to just the idea of grace?

In the centre inside page of the brochure it says: “The church is a place where people can belong and find meaning, restoration, comfort, and strength in Jesus, through grace alone, and where they can also find acceptance by real people.”

- What are some stories of people you know who have found meaning and restoration in your local faith community?
- What does it look like when a person finds acceptance and restoration?

In the centre inside page of the brochure it says: “What would it look like if we began to educate and equip ourselves to be church in the world? Reading God’s word and devoting ourselves to prayer.”

- How can we help people to find new joy in God’s word?
- What equipping do we most need to be the church in the world?

On the back of the brochure it talks a bit about our history. Real grace was modelled by Martin Luther Real life was taught by Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Real Community was modelled by those who planted our churches here in Australia.

- There are parts of our history that we are not proud of but what are some things that you think we should celebrate?
- What does it look like today when we embrace real Grace, Real life and Real Community?
