D. MINISTRIES IN THE CHURCH

Graduation from Luther Seminary

Adopted by the Commission on Theology and Inter-Church Relations, July 1987.

Not edited.

Graduation from Luther Seminary may be understood in two senses:

- a. In respect to those students, male or female, who attend the Seminary only to obtain the Bachelor of Theology degree, graduation is the Seminary's official certification, with the awarding of the degree, that all required work has been successfully completed.
- b. In respect to those students who have attended the Seminary to prepare for the office of the public ministry, a course available only to male students, graduation is the Seminary's official certification that all required work for this course has been successfully completed.
