MISSION PARTNERSHIPS

You already support mission work in Malaysia through your prayers and weekly offerings. But if you would like to work more closely with the Basel Christian Church of Malaysia or the Protestant Church in Sabah, you could talk to Pakenham Lakeside Church, about the blessings of their partnership with the Basel Christian Church of Malaysia and their work with the indigenous people living in the interior.

ERIN KERBER your Malaysia Program Officer

I'm here to help you and encourage you to join God's mission in Malaysia.

The population shows great ethnic, linguistic, cultural and religious diversity. Within this diversity a significant distinction is made for administrative purposes between indigenous peoples (including Malays) and immigrant populations (primarily Chinese and South Asians). Constituting about half of the country's population, the Malays are officially defined in part by their adherence to a specific religion, Islam. I'm meeting people who have hope for God's kingdom to be spread in Malaysia among the majority Muslim community. I'd love to visit your congregation, school or group to discuss ways you can partner with our Lutheran friends in Malaysia.

ABOUT MALAYSIA

Malaysia is a country in Southeast Asia, located partly on a peninsula of the Asian mainland and partly on the northern third of the island of Borneo. West (peninsular) Malaysia shares a border with Thailand, is connected by a causeway and a bridge (the 'second link') to the island state of Singapore, and has coastlines on the South China Sea and the Straits of Malacca. East Malaysia (Borneo) shares borders with Brunei and Indonesia.

Malaysia is a mix of the modern world and a developing nation. With its investment in the high technology industries and moderate oil wealth, it has become one of the richer nations in Southeast Asia. Malaysia, for most visitors, presents a happy mix: there is high-tech infrastructure and things generally work well and more or less on schedule, but prices remain more reasonable than some other countries.
