

Tips for using the SPEAK UP resource in your congregation

The purpose of this poster is to encourage children in your congregation to 'Speak Up' to a safe adult if they feel uncomfortable or unsafe about something. It could be something that is happening at church, home, school or elsewhere. The poster provides children with information and contact details about safe people and safe places they can contact if they need advice or help. It also helps you to fulfil the requirements of Child Safety Standard 2 and 6.

This poster can be tailored to your congregation.

We encourage you to identify a safe person or persons in your congregation who children can connect with and to add their contact details, including their photo, to the poster.

The person or persons selected must be confident and capable with assisting children and must have the following:

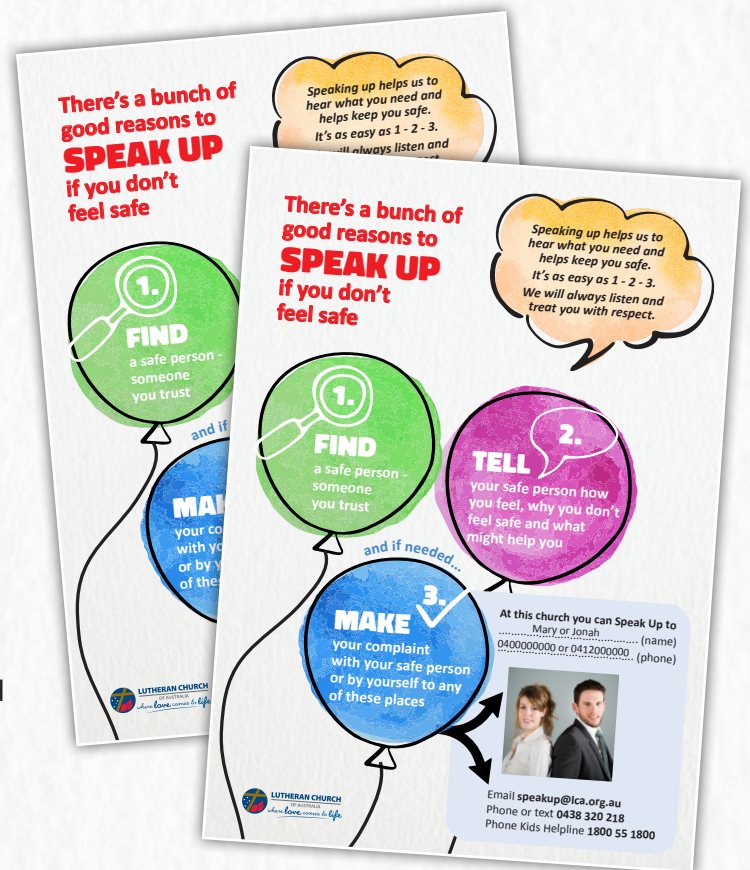

1. current working with children type check
2. up-to-date Safe Church Training.

If you don't have anyone who fulfils this, then it is best to leave that section blank. The poster still offers children other ways to speak up.

We know that providing more than one safe person gives children a choice about who they might speak up to. We encourage congregations to offer two safe people if this is possible. If you do have two people, you will need to upload a photograph of the two of them together. You can see from our example above that one photograph of two people can easily be uploaded, and there is space for two names and contact numbers.

Finally, we encourage you to:

- find a time to introduce the poster to the children of your congregation, perhaps before or after worship or Sunday school or as part of a children's message during worship
- print some mini flyers (separate document) for young people or their families to take home.
