Dear pastors and chairpeople

Victorian Premier Mr Daniel Andrews released a statement today announcing a change to the previously flagged easing of restrictions for worship. The maximum number of attendees at a church service will remain at 20 until at least 12 July.

Please adjust your plans accordingly and flag with your members.

....That's why we also need to delay an increase to gathering limits in businesses and community facilities.

That means restaurants, pubs, auction halls, community halls, libraries, museums and places of worship – will all stay at a maximum of 20 people in any one space until 12 July...
